THIRSTY EXPLORER DAILY PLANNER

DAILY PLANNER INSTRUCTIONS:

Around the world, most museums and sites are closed one day of the week. In Europe it's usually a Monday or Tuesday and some sites are open late one night during the week.

In some cities, museums are free on one day of the month, so it pays to know these days in advance. Generally, all sites and museums have websites you can get your information from. Tickets and reservations can be purchased in advance online. Museum passes often gain you entry without the long ticket lines so do your research! Museum passes not only save money but time (which is the most valuable thing you have).

SITE: List Site and website if you want

LOC: Location – I use the local metro or bus stop. If I'm walking, I use an address for Google Maps directions. Some use Lat/Long for navigation.

MOT: Mode of Travel: I use the legend to jot down – metro, bus, ferry, funicular – whatever you need.

HRS OPEN: General hours.

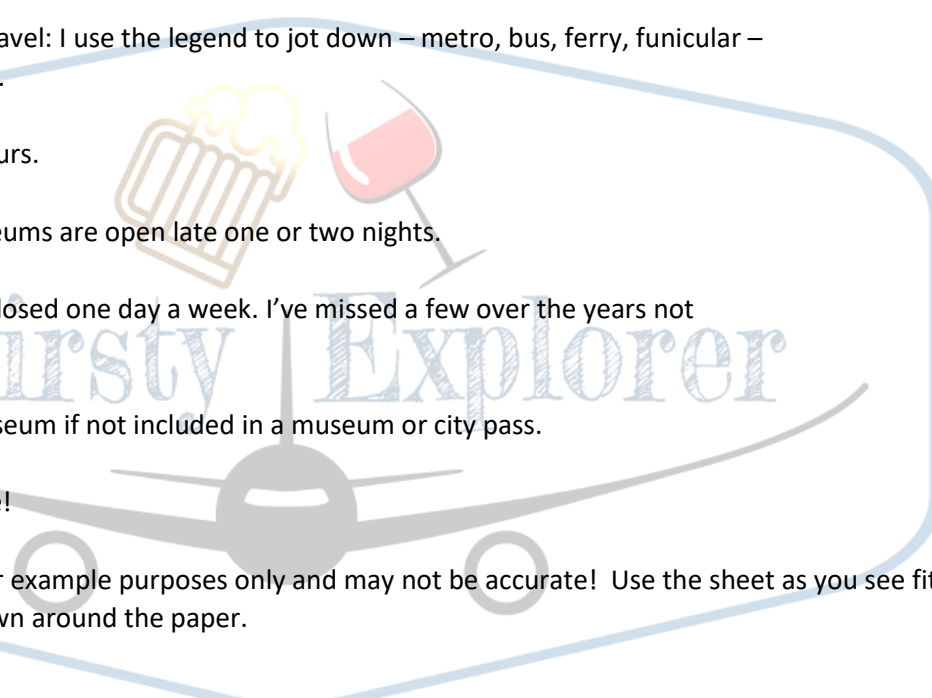

OPEN LATE: Many museums are open late one or two nights.

DAYS CLOSED: Many are closed one day a week. I've missed a few over the years not planning!

$: Cost of museum if not included in a museum or city pass.

DAY TO VISIT: Your choice!

My Example – the information is for example purposes only and may not be accurate! Use the sheet as you see fit. I end up with lots of notes jotted down around the paper.
